Innovate your space

9 ideas for creating a positive working environment

If you're setting up an office at home, the first rule is that it has to be a place of organisation and calm. Secondly, it doesn't hurt to complete it with objects that appeal to your personal aesthetic; you'll probably be spending a great deal of your day in there, so it's worth taking the time to make it into a space you're happy to occupy.

SITTING COMFORTABLY

The waterproof Bazaar Bag is ideal for when you need some time away from the computer screen, whether it's for a spot of creative thinking, reading through documents or a brainstorming session. £24.99 from www.BeenInBagBazaar.co.uk

RETRO STYLE

Kitty McCall's retro-style office chairs will add a zing of colour to any room and when teamed with simple office furniture will be a real style statement. £250 from www.kittymccall.com

SAFE STORAGE

Storage's datashur Personal is an ultra-secure USB flash device perfect for storing sensitive data. It includes an on-board keypad and the drive is unlocked by entering a PIN code before connecting to a USB port. All data transferred to the device is hardware encrypted for total peace of mind. From £20, www.infomga-uk.com

EASY PRINTING

A pocket-size print server from Lantronix doesn't need downloads, software or additional drivers, meaning that even the least technically minded can now print from their iPhones, iPads, Chromebooks and Android smartphones and tablets. £130 www.lantronix.com
